Judge's Comments:

We had a great number of exhibitors at this show - 14. The NELEA members showed up in force to support it. A wide variety of birds were shown particularly in the rares and eye rings.

The first place bird was unbelievable. This bird had the color, size and condition all in one. It was nice to see many friends. A special thanks needs to be given to all that attended. This was the last weekend of the D.C. sniper shootings and the people showed up in spite of the threat.
